Presider & Preacher: The Ven. Ray Taylor

We stand and sing

God of Nations at Thy feet,
In the bonds of love we meet,
Hear our voices, we entreat,
God defend our free land.
Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife and war,
Make her praises heard afar,
God defend New Zealand.

E Ihoa Atua,
O nga Iwi Matoura,
Ata whaka rongona:
Me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai;
Kia tau to atawhai;
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa

We sing

Where mountains rise to open skies your name, O God, is echoed far from island beach to kauri's reach
In water's light, in lake and star.

Your people's heart, your people's part,
be in our caring for this land,
for faith to flower, for aroha to let each other's mana stand.

From broken word, from conflict stirred, from lack of vision set us free to see the line of your design, to feel creations energy.

Your love be known, compassion shown, that every child have equal scope
In justice done, in trust begun shall be our heritage and hope.

Where mountains rise to open skies
your way of peace distil the air your spirit bind all humankind one covenant of life to share.

The Sentence

You Lord will surely comfort your people. You will make their deserts like Eden, their wastelands like a garden. Joy and gladness will be found among them, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.

Isaiah 51: 3

The Collect

God of mission, you call us by name; as you send us out may we continue to follow you, listening to your word, living your life, and declaring your message; through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Proclamation

A reading from Isaiah chapter 6, verse 1-13

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. ² Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. ³ And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." ⁴ The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. ⁵ And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" ⁶ Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. ⁷ The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." ⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" ⁹ And he said, "Go and say to this people: 'Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.'" ¹⁰ Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed." ¹¹ Then I said, "How long, O Lord?" And he said: "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate; ¹² until the LORD sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land. ¹³ Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled." The holy seed is its stump.

Final song:

Glory in the highest to the God of Heaven
Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring.
Singing Alleluia to our heavenly King
Singing Alleluia to our heavenly King!

Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son, with the Holy Spirit, you are Lord alone.

Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
Show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;
Show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer.

Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one, seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you!
Highest heaven adores
In the Father's glory, all the praise be yours
In the Father's glory, all the praise be yours

We sing

I vow to thee, my country,
all earthy things above,
Entire and whole and perfect,
the service of my love:
The love that asks no question,
the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar
the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters,
the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted
the final sacrifice.

And there's another country,
I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her,
most great to them that know
We may not count her armies,
we may not see her King,
Her fortress is a faithful heart,
her pride is suffering,
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

NEXT WEEK: SUNDAY 13 FEBRUARY

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Preacher and Presider: Rev. Rodney Dunlop

Readings:

Jeremiah 17: 5-10, Psalm 1, 1 Corinthians 15: 12-20, Luke 6: 17-26

A reading from 1 Corinthians chapter 15, verse 1-11

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand,² through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.³ For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures,⁴ and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures,⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.⁶ Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died.⁷ Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.⁸ Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me.⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me.¹¹ Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

We sing:

Father make us one,
Father make us one,
That the world may know
Thou has sent the Son,
Father make us one.

The Holy Gospel according to St Luke chapter 5, verse 1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Genesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God,² he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.³ He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."⁵ Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets."⁶ When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.⁷ So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.⁸ But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"⁹ For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken;¹⁰ and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."¹¹ When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

We sing:

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread and forgive our sins, as we forgive each one of those who sins against us;
and lead us not to the time of trial,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory.

Let all the people say Amen,
in every tribe and tongue.
Let every heart's desire be joined to see the kingdom come.
Let every hope and every dream be born in love again.
Let all the world sing with one voice;
let the people say Amen.

We remain standing and sing our Offertory Hymn:

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry,
all who dwell in dark and sin,
my hand will save.
I, who make the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, Is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night
I will go Lord, if you lead me
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain,
I have wept for love of them,
they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone,
I will speak my word to them,
whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, Is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night
I will go Lord, if you lead me
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame,
I will set a feast for them,
my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied
I will give my life to them,
whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, Is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if you lead me
I will hold your people in my heart.
